Taiim Falafel Shack

Hastings-on-Hudson | 914.478.0006 | taiimfalafelshack.com

Forget all those gob-stopping, dry falafels from your adolescent flirtation with vegetarianism—the only thing those have in common with Taiim’s is the occasional chickpea. Taiim’s nutty falafels are made with a traditional Israeli falafel scoop, ensuring that each deep-fried sphere of herb-laden chickpea dough remains light and fluffy after frying. After cooking, the falafel is mashed onto a pita, and doused with tahini-rich yogurt and lively, pink pickled turnips. The result is both crunchy and juicy, and our idea of vegetarianism.
