Incredible Falafel from Taiim Falafel Shack, Hastings-on-Hudson

You have heard me gripe about the lack of diverse food in Westchester. So every time I find good ethnic food I feel like it's my birthday. Wednesday was my birthday because I found Taiim Falafel Shack. Everything I ate was fantastic. My husband who is scared of any type of seasoning besides salt and pepper even liked his beef shawarma sandwich. I give the Taiim Falafel Shack two thumbs up and if I had three, they would get that one also.

Falafel, Lentil soup, Beef shawarma, Babaghanouj

Why this business is featured on The Lily List:

- Incredible falafel. It's not greasy, it's not over-stuffed, and the seasoning is perfect.
- Shawarma sandwiches. Choice of beef or chicken. I tried the beef, the flavor was excellent.
- Lentil soup. There is a spice in this soup that makes it a little bit spicy which I really liked.
- Israeli chopped salad. Fresh cucumber, tomatoes, green onion, and herbs. Refreshing.
- Affordable prices. Sandwiches were $5 and if you buy 6, your 7th is free.
